Socialistic Principles

Article 38	To promote the welfare of the people by securing a social order permeated by justice—social, economic and political— and to minimise inequalities in income, status, facilities and opportunities
Article 39	To secure (a) the right to adequate means of livelihood for all citizens; (b) the equitable distribution of material resources of the community for the common good; (c) prevention of concentration of wealth and means of production; (d) equal pay for equal work for men and women; (e) preservation of the health and strength of workers and children against forcible abuse; (f) opportunities for healthy development of children
Article 39A	To promote equal justice and to provide free legal aid to the poor
Article 41	To secure the right to work, to education and to public assistance in cases of unemployment, old age, sickness and disablement
Article 42	To make provision for just and humane conditions of work and maternity relief
Article 43	To secure a living wage ⁷ , a decent standard of life and social and cultural opportunities for all workers
Article 43A	To take steps to secure the participation of workers in the management of industries
Article 47	To raise the level of nutrition and the standard of living of people and to improve public health

Gandhian Principles

Article 40	To organise village panchayats and endow them with necessary powers and authority to enable them to function as units of self-government.
Article 43	To promote cottage industries on an individual or co-operation basis in rural areas.
Article 43B	To promote voluntary formation, autonomous functioning, democratic control and professional management of cooperative societies.
Article 46	To promote the educational and economic interests of SCs, STs, and other weaker sections of the society and to protect them from social injustice and exploitation
Article 47	To prohibit the consumption of intoxicating drinks and drugs which are injurious to health
Article 48	To prohibit the slaughter of cows, calves and other milch and draught cattle and to improve their breeds

Liberal-Intellectual Principle

Article 44	To provide early childhood care and education for all children until they complete the age of six years
Article 48	To organise agriculture and animal husbandry on modern and scientific lines
Article 48 A	To protect and improve the environment and to safeguard forests and wild life
Article 49	To protect monuments, places and objects of artistic or historic interest which are declared to be of national importance
Article 50	To separate the judiciary from the executive in the public services of the State
Article 51	To promote international peace and security and maintain just and honourable relations between nations; to foster respect for international law and treaty obligations, and to encourage settlement of international disputes by arbitration
